They use a combination of K4, Ecosolve and wet cleaning which provides them with the ability to masterfully clean just about anything from heavily soiled items to the most delicate of items...all with no funky dry cleaning smell and all in an environmentally friendly manner.

Coupons

Hangers' pricing is already competitive with other local dry cleaners, but if you provide them with your email address they will send incredible (and funny) coupons a couple times per month. They also send out cool stuff on Facebook and Twitter, so befriend or follow them if you want.

Payment

Each time you use Hangers Cleaners, your credit or debit card will be charged automatically. Your card information is held securely by Hangers Cleaners—in fact, none of your personal information (other than your name and phone number) will be visible on your bag's ID tag.
