

OLP's Weekly Update

September 20, 2018

SCHOOL BUSINESS

PICTURE DAY: Students and school staff will take pictures for the yearbook on Thursday, September 27. Students must wear school uniforms for fall pictures. Look for order forms to come home with students. Orders may also be placed online at inter-state.com/order with order code: 32810JB.

TRUNK OR TREAT T-SHIRTS: A special design will be created by an 8th grader and chosen for this year's event t-shirt. Orders for Trunk or Treat t-shirts are due by September 28! Click here for the order form. Special days will be designated for students to wear Trunk or Treat shirts and the shirts may also be worn as spirit wear the remainder of the school year!

Save the date! Mark your calendars for Friday, October 19; 5-9 p.m. for Trunk or Treat, 8th grade's largest fundraiser. Click the links for more details or for frequently asked questions about the event.

MUSIC PROGRAM REQUEST: The music program needs your noodles! Doing some fall cleaning around the pool? Please keep the OLP music program in mind and donate any unwanted pool noodles. No matter the color or condition. A large coral reef is being constructed for the 7th and 8th grade musical in May, Little Mermaid Jr. Please drop noodle donations off at the music room. Thank you in advance.

SPECIAL THANKS: The student health screenings completed this month were only possible because of the generous gift of time given by many. Thank you to the wonderful volunteers who made the health screenings run so smoothly: Amy Francois, Maribeth Joyce, Christie Johansen, Mindy Wieberg, Holly LeNeave, Dr. Mark & Delores Suenram, Mary Rupp, Kelly John, Danielle Gose, Ginny Moore, Nicolette Fuchs, Faith McVey, Dr. Bonnie Klinginsmith, Michelle Correll, Angela & Erik Timpson, Lindsey Kauslarich, Karland Landa, Sandy Braun, & Michelle Vargo. Also, thank you to Mary Kay Hayde for help recruiting volunteers and to the teachers for their patience & flexibility. PTO generously provided delicious lunches for screening volunteers. The Health Room staff truly appreciates the support for this annual endeavor.
